In 1969 my father, Joseph Sanfratello Sr., opened the original Sanfratello's Pizzeria on Main Street in Glenwood on Chicago's south side. Dad converted a modest single family home into a warm and welcoming place serving pizza made with love, and treating everyone like family. For over four decades, the Sanfratellos have been living up to my dad's vision across all of our locations in the Midwest and beyond.

The Sanfratello family is Sicilian, which means that we are obsessive about good food. We never skimp on quality – our sauces are made with vine-ripened tomatoes that have a powerful full-bodied taste unlike any other. And we are the last of the southside style pizzerias that use 100% Scamorza cheese in our signature pizza. It's a bit more expensive, but it pays off – it has a robust flavor, and it holds up to high heat so that we can cook our crust to crispy yet chewy perfection without burning the cheese.

The toppings are fresh, and the meat's from Chicago. What more could you ask for? And yes, we serve Chicago's other style of pizza – our deep dish is made with the same commitment to quality. In fact, every delicious item on our menu is made from scratch!

Thanks for stopping by!
