

THE HISTORY OF TONINO'S PIZZA

In 1977, Tonino's Pizza was nothing but a dream for the 17 year old Italian immigrant, Antonio Illiano. Born in the small town of Fusaro, 15 minutes from center city Naples, Antonio was introduced to southern Italian cooking, passed down from generations of honest, fresh cooking methods. Tonino (Little Tony) first learned the art of traditional pizza making from his mother in their outdoor wood-fired oven and continued to pass these methods along to his sons.

Today, after learning from and watching his father open 19 successful pizza shops over the years, Tonino has been joined by his oldest son, Josh, to build upon these Italian cooking traditions at Tonino's Pizza & Grille.

Tonino's promises the best of ingredients, including America's finest mozzarella cheese, Grande; sauces made from imported Italian san marzano tomatoes and fresh Italian basilica; and dough made the traditional way, with no preservatives or additives, using an old family recipe with natural yeast.
